

Sex, Lies, & Murder! #4 The Two Bloodlines Of Creation Part 2

In Part 1 of the “Two Bloodlines Of Creation”, we learned that Eve would be saved by her children bearing the Messiah, namely Mary. The Curse and Declaration given to Eve about her children, not only referred to the Messiah and Satan, but her own children within her womb. Then we covered how, because of this, there are pre-Fall and post-Fall children, that the pre-Fall children and all the earth had fallen to sin like their parents. Then after the Fall, Adam and Eve started to have children that were just like them, not genetically variant. We have started to show that there are two separate bloodlines concerning creation: the Pre-Fall children bloodlines that were affected by sin, having been previously perfect, and the post-Fall children having been born into sin. In part 2, we will continue to cover the two bloodlines and the two spiritual bloodlines of creation, showing that Cain and Abel were archetypes of Satan and Jesus. Satan and Jesus being the types and focus of the grand story of salvation is the hidden prophetic message in Cain and Abel’s lives.

RECAP: EVERYTHING CREATED HAS FALLEN TO SIN

④ Adam & Eve Are The Fore Parents Of All Humanity.
Genesis 3:20 “The man called his wife Eve because she would be the mother of all the living.”

④ Everything Fell To Sin, This Includes The Pre-Fall Children.
Romans 5:14 “Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren’t like Adam’s disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come.”

④ This Means All Of Creation Fell To Sin, Even The Earth And Stars.
Romans 8:19-22 “For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. (20) For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope (21) that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. (22) For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now.”

RECAP: THE PUNISHMENT OF EVE

Genesis 3:15-16

- (#1) I will put hostility between you and the woman, and
- (#2) between your offspring and her offspring.

He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel."

As we covered this division starting in the womb, it is physical and spiritual. This is proven by the fact that it was God that placed this separation and division. And the Bible clearly says Cain was of Satan, and Abel was of God.

✓ Cain Was Of The Devil And Evil

1 John 3:11-12 "For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; (12) unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous."

✓ Abel Was Of God & Was Righteous

Hebrews 11:4 "By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks."

As we just read, Cain was of the Devil and Abel was from God and righteous. This division was placed on Eve by God.

- Cain, the child of her rebellion, bearing the sin of his mother.
- Abel, the son of her prior perfection, bearing the righteousness of God.

PROPHETIC IMPLICATIONS

After Cain and Abel's birth we can see the prophetic implications continue to develop. We will start with the sacrifices of each and the prophetic implication:

ⓐ Cain

Genesis 4:2b "Cain was a tiller of the ground."

Genesis 4:3 "As time passed, Cain brought an offering to Yahweh from the fruit of the ground."

ⓐ Abel

Genesis 4:2a "Abel was a keeper of sheep,"

Genesis 4:4 "Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat."

THE PROPHETIC OUTCOMES OF THE OFFERINGS TO GOD.

ⓐ Cain

Genesis 4:5 “but he [God] didn’t respect Cain and his offering. Cain was very angry, and the expression on his face fell.”

ⓐ Abel

Genesis 4:4 “Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat. Yahweh respected Abel and his offering,”

Now at this point, we need to remember the following:

What Is Sin?

1 John 3:4 “Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness.”

ⓐ God Warns Cain That There Is A Law And Not To Sin.

Genesis 4:6-7 “Yahweh said to Cain, “Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen? (7) If you do well, won’t it be lifted up? If you don’t do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it.”

As we can see, sin is at play with the offering and the children offering them. As we recapped from the start, Cain is of the Devil. Abel was of God. In this prophetic declaration of offerings, we can find the very display of the work of the Messiah. We will now show the prophetic implications of these offerings- that Cain Represented the Devil and the fallen world, and Abel Represents Jesus and the courts of Heaven.

BIRTH ORDER

ⓐ Cain Then Abel

As we will see here in prophetic order- Cain was born first, then Abel.

Genesis 4:1-2a “The man knew Eve his wife. She conceived, and gave birth to Cain, and said, “I have gotten a man with Yahweh’s help.” (2) Again she gave birth, to Cain’s brother Abel...”

ⓐ Adam Then Jesus

Here we see Adam came first, then Jesus.

1 Corinthians 15:45-46 “So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.” The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. However that which is spiritual isn’t first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual.”

Let’s Remember This Before We Go Further.

As we will read, this division started in the womb and is physical and spiritual.

✓ Cain Was Of The Devil And Evil

1 John 3:11-12 “For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; (12) unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother’s righteous.”

✓ Abel Was Of God & Was Righteous

Hebrews 11:4 “By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks.”

TYPES AND ARCHETYPES OF OFFERINGS.

ⓐ Adam Then Cain

Cain And Adam Are Of The Dust Physically, So Cain Offered Of His Own Substance to God.

1 Corinthians 15:47a “The first man [Adam] is of the earth, made of dust.”

Genesis 4:3 “As time passed, Cain brought an offering to Yahweh from the fruit of the ground.”

This also speaks back to the origin of sin and the fruit of the Tree of The Knowledge of Good and Evil. This is one of the reasons why I believe God rejected Cain's Offering. It represented the works of the flesh- the work of rebellion through the act of Eve, then Adam. His parents ate the fruit; Cain offered God fruit of the ground.

Genesis 3:6 “And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasing to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make wise, she took of its fruit, and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.”

ⓐ Abel Then Jesus

Abel and Jesus are Righteous and Represented the Spirit. Abel's offering was spiritual and abundant- representing the works of Jesus and His Sacrifice for our sins. This is why I believe it was one of the reasons God accepted Abel's offering. It was a pure, faultless beast without sin, taking the sin away from Abel upon itself. Just as the sacrifice of Jesus takes away the sin from humanity and places it upon Himself for all those who will believe and obey.

1 Corinthians 15:47b “The second man [Jesus] is the Lord from heaven.”

Genesis 4:4 “Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat.”

The Word “Flock” Often Represents Sheep and Goats, foremost could mean cattle.

Strong's: Flocks H6629 - תָּסֵן - tsô'n - tse'ôn - tsone, tseh-one'

“From an unused root meaning to migrate; a collective name for a flock (of sheep or goats); also figuratively (of men): - (small) cattle, flock (+ -s), lamb (+ -s), sheep ([-cote, -fold, -shearer, -herds]).”

Abel brought the innocent blood of his lambs. His gift was yes, a physical lamb, but a spiritual sacrifice. We can see why the offering of Abel was acceptable to God. We are being shown prophetically the life and death of Jesus through Abel.

1 John 5:6-8 “This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. (7) For there are three who testify: (8) the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one.”

Hebrews 11:4 “By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks.”

The First Sacrifice To God Represents The Sacrifice Of Jesus. Abel Slew, What I Believe to Be A Lamb, because of this verse:

Revelation 13:8 “And all dwelling on the earth will worship it, those whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain, from the foundation of the world.”

It was foretelling the Day Of the Messiah.

John 1:29 “The next day John sees Jesus coming to him and says, Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!”

SLAIN BY HIS BROTHER

ⓐ Cain Kills Abel

Then Abel became a sacrifice given to God by Cain, his own brother.

Genesis 4:8 “And Cain talked with his brother Abel. And it happened when they were in the field; Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.”

ⓐ The Jews Killed Jesus

The Prophetic Parallel: The Brothers Of Jesus Killed Him.

1 Thessalonians 2:14-15 “For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews; (15) who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and don’t please God, and are contrary to all men;”

THE BLOOD SACRIFICES

ⓐ Cain Kills Abel, Giving Into Sin

Here we find that God recognizes sins. That Cain rebels against God giving into his sin, following his passion like his mother. Once again, all originating from a situation involving the fruit of the earth.

Genesis 4:6-9 “Yahweh said to Cain, “Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen? (7) If you do well, won’t it be lifted up? If you don’t do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it.” (8) Cain said to Abel, his brother, “Let’s go into the field.” While they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel, his brother, and killed him. (9) Yahweh said to Cain, “Where is Abel, your brother?” He said, “I don’t know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

ⓐ Abel In His Righteousness Did Well And Resisted Against Sin.

Hebrews 12:3-4 “For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don’t grow weary, fainting in your souls. (4) You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin;”

The Righteous Blood Of Abel Cried Out To God.

Genesis 4:10 “Yahweh said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries to me from the ground.”

We Are Told That The Offering Of Abel Still Speaks.

Hebrews 11:4 “By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks.”

We should cover that the faith of Abel was a submissive and obedient life, committed to God. That he did not just offer a gift, but gifts. As we read, the blood cried out to God. Then we read the offering of Abel is still speaking. We can understand that we are not just talking about the animals slain and the fat. We can clearly understand that it was his own life that was the real sacrifice. With all the prophetic parallels, we know the sacrifice of Abel was pointing to the sacrifice of Jesus. I believe in Cain’s jealous rage he found that Abel would make a better sacrifice than his fruits. With his own satanic reasoning, I can imagine his thought process: “So, God wants a better sacrifice. Well, He likes Abel so much, being righteous and holy, why not slaughter His prize sheep?” Of course, this is just me sharing my thoughts. But as for me, it doesn’t take any leap of faith or logic to see the possibilities of this.

⌚ Jesus' Blood Is Better Than Abel's

Here we can see again that it was the blood of Abel, meaning his life, that was the true sacrifice and gift to God. That Abel's Blood speaks, but the Blood of Jesus speaks a more perfect sacrifice.

Hebrews 12:24 “to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.”

A Perfect Sacrifice.

1 Peter 1:18-20 “Knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers, (19) but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot; (20) indeed having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but revealed in the last times for you,”

Hebrews 9:24-26 “For Christ has not entered into the Holy of Holies made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. (25) Nor yet that He should offer Himself often, even as the high priest enters into the Holy of Holies every year with the blood of others (26) (for then He must have suffered often since the foundation of the world), but now once in the end of the world He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.”

ABEL AND JESUS- GENTLE LAMBS

I can imagine that Abel did not resist his brother in his death. Yet, he resisted himself to act out in the flesh against his brother. Just like Jesus. Can we not see the parallels of Jesus and Abel in the following verses?

Matthew 5:39 “But I tell you, don't resist him who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.”

Jeremiah 11:19 “But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter. I didn't know that they had devised plans against me, saying, “Let's destroy the tree with its fruit, and let's cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.”

Isaiah 53:6-8 “All we like sheep have gone astray. Everyone has turned to his own way; and Yahweh has laid on him the iniquity of us all. (7) He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he didn't open his mouth. (8) He was taken away by oppression and judgment; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people?”

THE FIRST/BEST OF THE LOT

ⓐ Abel

Genesis 4:4 “Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat. Yahweh respected Abel and his offering,”

ⓐ Jesus

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.”

Jesus even replaced the offering of Cain.

1 Corinthians 15:20-23 “But now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. (21) For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. (22) For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. (23) But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ’s, at his coming.”

Cain and Abel were archetypes of Satan and Jesus. Satan and Jesus being the types and focus of the grand story of salvation is the hidden prophetic message in Cain and Abel’s lives. We have just demonstrated the parallels, the physical connections, and some spiritual connection in the bloodlines. In our next study, we will continue to dive deep into the separation and spiritual division of these bloodlines. We should praise God for declaring the plan of salvation from the very beginning. From Genesis to Revelation, this plan is loudly declared for those who have eyes to see and ears to hear.

Just a reminder, all this we’ve been covering will feed into our study of the Nephilim and supposed marriage, sex with humans, and accordingly familial sexual relations.
